LEADS ALL THE WAY AND SCORES AT GOOD ODDS IN LATONIA FEATURE.

Cooler Weather Helps Out the Patronage at Ken tucky Course-Anna Patricia Beats Merrick and Other Useful Platers in Sprinting Race.

Cincinnati, O., July 2.—Five of today's races at Latonia carried selling conditions, and four of them brought out the poorer grade of starters. The attendance was again of large proportions, due to improved weather conditions. Cooling breezes gave a welcome relief from the torrid weather of the past week. Several light showers fell during the afternoon, but only served to lay the dust. The racing was interesting and several of the finishes close and hard fought. The best offering of the day was a sixturiongs dash for two-year-olds, which resulted in victory for Ruffles. She led for the entire trip. Trainer Young, who saddled Ruffles, also sent to the post br. Samuel, which won the opening dash. The latter gave some early promise of being a star this season, but this was his initial victory.

O. A. Bianchi took the purse in the second race with Al Bloch, which got home in advance of Nello, with Mother Katcham in third place. The latter had a rough trip and was probably best in the race, Bianchi also saddled the winner of the fifth race in James MacManus' Anna Patricia, which scored over Merrick and Ethelda.

A big coup was spoiled in the third race, when Trovato was practically left at the post, He was much the best, but a poor beginning contributed to his failure, Anna Reed leading him to the finish by a scant length.

T. W. Flynn's Beautiful performed what appeared the imposible when she got up to win by a scant half length after having followed the others for the first half fully a sixteenth in the rear. She closed with a tremendous rush and picked up the leaders one by one in the stretch. Bonne Chance landed second money and Mockler third, Beautiful was given a rousing reception on her return to the scales.

There was a flurry of excitement after the second race when the track police apprehended four persons alleged to be counterfeiters who had been rying to pass silver dollars on the ticket sellers. A search of one of the men revealed thirteen of the spurious coins. He had each coin wrapped in tissue paper

Hyki, in Mose Goldblatt's stable, has been fired and will be rested at Latonia until fall.

J. G. Greener, former owner of Olambala, Oiseau and Countless, was among today's arrivals and will remain for the rest of the meeting.

E. R. Bradley shipped his Saratoga consignment this morning. The rest of his stable will be sent to Windsor.

to Windsor.

The three-horse combination, comprising Ruffles, Anna Patricia and Beautiful, paid $69.95 for $2. The two-horse, consisting of Al Bloch and Anna Reed, paid $31.35 for $2. E. C. Hopper, the well-known racing official, who is ill at his home in Dunville, Ky., is reported to be progressing satisfactorily. He is part owner of the filly Ruffles, which won the fourth race.

W. J. Young celebrated his birthday by saddling two winners during the afternoon.

The crack juvenile, Old Rosebud, which will be a starter in the Cincinnati Trophy next Saturday, will be shipped with others in the F. D. Weir stable to Saratoga as soon as a car is available.

Beautiful and Anna Patricia were the only winning choices this afternoon. Both were ridden by Kederis.

Jockey Loftus departed last night for Hamilton and will later go to Fort Erie, where he will rejoin his contract employer, J. B. Respess. The scarcity of riding material is being felt here.
Col. Milton Young was again in the steward's stand after an absence of one day in Lexington, where he went on a matter of personal business.
Adair & Baker have purchased from T. Whitlock the two-year-old bay colt by Stalwart—Paradise Won for $1.000. This youngster, which has shown several speedy trials, is a half brother to Financier. James Everman's contract with jockey E. Taplin has expired and that rider is looking after his own mounts at present. Taplin will ride as a free lance on the Canadian tracks.
Miller Henderson, of the former big racing firm of Henderson & Hogan, has arrived to attend the closing days of the races at Latonia from French Lick Springs, where he has been resting since the Louisville meetings ended, with the result that his health at present is greatly improved. His partner in the ownership of the racing string, Frank G. Hogan, is still at his home at Pasadena, Cal., and will not come to Kentucky until fall. This firm will likely buy some young racing material in the autumn and return to the turf next season with a fair string of horses. Henderson believes now that his health will next year be so much improved that he will be able to personally attend to the training.

Both trains will stop for passengers at Englewood and Sonth Chicago. Four trains will be run over the same road ionorrow, when a bigger crowd is naturally expected. TEST OF DIRECTORS' LIABILITY LAW.

Conference of Reformers and District Attorney Wysong May Result in Court Action.

New York, July 2.—District Attorney Charles N. Wysong of Nassan County was closeted yesterday for several hours with the Rev. William Sheafe Chase, Samuel Marcus and Superintendent Barbour, all of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, The object of the visit of these persons to Mineola was to present to the District Attorney a mass of so-called evidence to show that gambling was going on at the races at Belmont Park. It was urged that the District Attorney should take action against the directors of the track, under the Directors' Liability law. This would mean that one of the directors of the Westchester Racing Association would be arrested and held under the charge. The burden would then be upon the shoulders of the District Attorney to prove that Section 973 of the Penal Law land been broken. This section is in two parts. No. 1 reads—"The offense of being an officer of an association 'who keeps' an enclosure used for gambling." No. 2—"The offense of being an agent who knowingly lets or permits the same to be used."

Whether this law is constitutional or not has never been tested. It became operative on September 1, 1910. In the Paul Shane case, although the question of directors' liability was not before the court, so far as the charge against Shane was concerned, Justice Sendder, in his remarks, said: "While ignorance of the law is in general no defense, the maxim is not true where the actual criminal intent is an essential element of the crime and knowledge of some collateral fact is essential to the existence of such an intent."

Mr. Marcus is quoted as follows: "Our conference with Mr. Wysong was satisfactory, and we will help his at the day is a second withink that after he has thoroughly gone over the cyclence which we have placed in his possession, he will at once begin an action. He seems to have a fair attitude in the matter and we will help hia all we eau."

Mr. Wysong made the following statement: "I have been in consultation with three members of evidence which we have placed in fils possession, he will at once begin an action. He seems to have a fair attitude in the matter and we will help him all we can."

Mr. Wysong made the following statement: "I have been in consultation with three members of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, and the result of that interview cannot be learned for soaddays. They have submitted to me a volume of evidence which I will go over carefully: we have also gone into the situation thoroughly and discussed it from every standpoint. I do not think there is anything in relation to the gambling that we have not talked about. When I have gone over the matter as they have submitted it to me, if I think the evidence so submitted pastifics it, I will proceed under the directors' liability law, but if the evidence is to my mind insufficient I will ask the society to secure that which is necessary. I think that it will require about fifteen witnesses according to the testimony submitted."

Canon Chase was at Belmont Park on Saturglay last with five detectives from the McClemnan Detective Agency, but no one could be found who had made a bot with any of the detectives. The Canon was again at the track on Monday, but was not accompanied by the detectives. There was no open betting and no one could make a wager of any size unless he was well known.

Word was received from Albany that Gov. Suizer has no intention of recommending to the extra session of the Legislature amendments to racetrack gambling laws such as suggested by Assistant District Attorney Wysong. The Governor is emphatic in his declaration that no more legislation is necessary and that gambling on the racetracks could be stopped if the present laws were fully enforced.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

James Blute will train St. Joseph, Grenida and Frank Purcell for Miss A. M. Marrone, The sale of the Kohler stud of horses has been set for September S at Sheepshead Bay.

Jockey B. Steele will ride in Canada as a free ance with his father, A. D. Steele, having super-ision over his mounts until he rejoins the Camden table at Saratoga in August.

Harry Cochran, who plans to resume riding after an absence from the saddle of several seasons, has a farm at Helmet, Mo., some thirty miles from St. Louis. He purchased this place with his earn-ings as a rider.

The pari-mutuel speculation on the Grand Prix de Paris on Sanday last amounted to $389,292 and totaled $556,312 for the day. The latter figure is considerably less than for the same day last year. The reason for this was because there were less than four starters in two of the races and therefore there was no place betting in these events. The receipts from admissions amounted to $67,000.

Carries R. T. Wilson's Colors to Victory in Belmont Park Stake-Besom Also Wins Stake.

New York, July 2.—Although light fields went to the post in the six races decided at Relmont Park this afternoon, the sport was interesting, as each race was hotly contested, with several close finishes. There were two feature races down for decision and R. T. Wilson captured the chief one, which was the Independence Steeplechase Handicap, with his crack jumper Penobscot, while the Norwood Selling Stakes went to P. S. P. Randolph's good sprinter, Beson.

Stakes went to P. S. P. Randoids good sprinter, Besom.

Only five faced the starter in the steeplechase and at no time was there any doubt as to who would be the winner. Wolke, who had the mount on Penobscot, was forced to keep his mount under a choking pull from the start and could have gone to the front at any time he wished. But Wolke was content to let Jim Hanson set the pace until just before the last jump had been cleared, when he moved into the lead with Penobscot, which won, hard held, by three lengths from L. Navarre. The rate had a net value of $1,700. For some unexplained reason, Relluf ruled a slight favorite over Penobscot, but although he showed a flash of speed on the backstretch, he was never really dangerous and was last to finish.

Besom was installed favorite for the Norwood, as he seemed to be best after Azyiade had been withdrawn, and while he led from start to finish and won, it was a fluky kind of a victory. He was all out to heat Ella Bryson. After Rightmire, the rider of Ella Bryson, had made his weight, he lodged a claim of foul, but it was not allowed by the stewards. Besom led in the clear to within a quarter of a mile from home, when he began to grow leg weary, and when he did he started to bear over from the middle of the track to the outer edge. While it did not look as if he had interfered with any of the others except Genesta, Ella Bryson and Palanquin both were bothered. The latter was coming through on the outside rail like a streak and although he never did get clear sailing he was a good third. Genesta was also closing fast at the time that she was sharply cut off and there were many who were inclined to believe that she would have won but for being forced to pull up.

The handicap at one mile saw the Hallenbeck colors in front for the first time during the meeting when Hedge won. She ran a race of the sensational kind. In entering the stretch she was absolutely last and few dared to believe that she had a possible chance.

But once she began to move up, she showed Intely last and few dared to believe that she had a possible chance.

But once she began to move up, she showed dazzling speed and, notwithstanding the fact that she was bumped several times by Reybourn while working her way to the front in the final furlong, she won by three parts of a length. Guy Fisher also showed keen speed in the stretch racing. Meanly last to enter the stretch, he finished a good second. In addition to bumping Hedge, Reybourn was guilty of putting Yankee Notions on the fence three-sixteenths from the finish and the colt was knocked out of the running. At the time he was well up with the others and had a winning chance. His rider, Karrick, lodged a claim of foul, which was allowed by the stewards, who disqualified Reybourn from third place and gave that position to Jawbone. In addition Ford, who rode Reybourn, was suspended for the rest of the meeting for rough riding.

John E. Madden won the opening dash with The Spirit, which showed quite an improvement over her previous effort, but Albert Simons made him pay more than the amount of the purse to retain her. The Spirit, which was entered to be sold for $600, was bid up to twice that amount by Simons, but Madden bid the customary $5 and retained her at $1.265.

Tranid, the two-year-old filly which brought top price at the Kohler sale last Saturday, and was then resold to Schuyler L. Parsons for a price said to be $6,000, worked five furlongs in 1:01, easily, this afternoon.

James Rowe, trainer for the Whitney stable, does not take kindly to the fact that few believe Whisk Broom II ran one mile and a quarter in 2:00 when he won the Suburban Handicap on Saturday last. Rowe is strongly of the opinion that Timer W. H. Barretto was correct in timing the race. Rowe, who as a rule has little to say, in a conversation with Starter Jim Milton today declared that Whisk Broom II is entitled to the record without any question, as he himself timed him in 2:00%.

SCHORR STABLE'S STAKES

VANDERGRIFT WINS FEATURE RACE OF CLOS-ING DAY AT HAMILTON.

John Reardon Also Swells the Schorr Winnings by a Victory in Selling Handicap Over the Turf Course-A Day of Close Finishes.

Hamilton, Ont., July 2.—The Hamilton Jockey Club offered as a feature for its closing day's program the Spring Brewery Stakes, a dash of five furlongs, $1,500 added, for two-year-olds, It brought out a small field, only four going to the post and, two of them. The Usher and Spring Maid, were coupled as the Robert Davies entry. John W. Schorr furnished the winner in his Ben Brush colt, Vandergrift, which led from the rise of the barrier and at the finish was two lengths in advance of Spring Maid. It was the first time that Southern Maid failed to show in front at some stage of the racing since she made her maiden effort at Woodbine. Knapp, who had the mount on Southern Maid, claimed a foul after the race, but it was not allowed. Knapp took Southern Maid back at the half mile ground, where Vandergrift passed her. The tabled history of the Spring Brewery Stakes as follows:

Five of the remaining races were selling affairs, in which well balanced fields went to the post. A majority of them furnished interesting contests and in some of the finishes it was hard to tell which had won until the official placing was displayed. This was especially so of the fourth race, in which Boney Bee, Theo Cook and Double Five pased the judge's noses apart in the order named.

The attendance was again large and speculation brisk. Forty-eight layers attended to the wants of the speculators and as a majority of the choices were beaten they had the better of it.

like his father, in the front rank of English trainers died of paralysis at Newmarket, Saturday, June 12. Concerning some features of his career, London Sportsman said:

"He was identified with the victories of many good horses belonging to the Duke of Portland, for whom he put up a remarkable record. Located at the famous Heath House, he for thirteen years upheld the traditions of the place where his uncle, Matthew Dawson, had in earlier years trained a host of classic and other winners. In 1886, George Dawson's first year at Heath House, sixteen horses won a total of $53,245 between them, Melton (then four years old), Arcadian and Pearl Diver being the biggest winners, the first and last named the property of Lord Hastings. The following year Ayrshire accounted for a large amount in stake money, and the following season won the Two Thousand Guineas and Derby, of nearly $50,000 in stakes. A memorals season was that of 1889, when the stable winnings amounted to no less than $392,160, or which Donovan's share was $193,335 (including the Derby, St. Leger and other important races), while Ayrshire won over $100,000 and Semolina $46,430. In 1890 Memoir won the Oaks and St. Leger, contributing largely to another remarkable year for Heath House. In 1891 the winnings of the stable showed a considerable drop, but another good time came in 1892, when such horses as Raeburn, The Prize, Inferno and Mrs. Butterwick were the most important winners, and the following season was notable for the success of Mrs. Butterwick were the most important winners, and the following season was notable for the success of Mrs. Butterwick in the Oaks and the Laucashire Plate, the total of stake money now being $113,085. A good year was 1894, when Amiable carried off the One Thousand Guineas and two of the One Thousand Guineas hotslee for the success of the St. Leger, one of the Puke of Portland, and Grey Legwon the City and Suburban for the Duke of Westminster. In later seasons His Reverence, Lady Frivoles and Smeau were good winners traine

L. B., Toronto, Ont. The bet on Horron to win the Hamilton Derby became a draw when the horse was scratched.

F. J. B., Cincinnati, O. A place parlay on Milton B. and Dr. Waldo Briggs at mutuel prices June 30, gave a return of $29.83 for each dollar invested.

G. D. T., Cleveland, O. It is reported that Porter betting, if any takes place, will be private betting as now in use on New York tracks. On the Kentucky tracks there is no device showing the grand total of sales on all the machines as the selling progresses.

THIS MARE A GOOD INVESTMENT.

Lexington, Ky., July 2.—E. Brown, trainer of Little Nephew, acting for his employer, M. B. Gruber, of Louisville, came here from Canada today and bought from Charles W. Joore, of Mere Hill Stud, for $2,500, the yearling half-brother to Rod and Gun and Gunshot, a bay coit by McGee, dam Gunrod, by Mirthful. The coit is a grand individual and will be shipped to Louisville tomorrow. Mr. Moore bought Gunrod from John E. Madden in the fall of 1910 for $750. In the spring of 1911 she foaled a colt by Planudes for which Moore got $1,250 and her next foal brings $2,500, leaving Moore the mare and a profit of $3,000 less the expense of her keep.
